

Humber Low Carbon Pipelines project

Stage One Consultation – Feedback form

National Grid Ventures is bringing forward plans for a new network of underground pipelines to transport captured carbon dioxide and hydrogen in the Humber region.

This consultation is being carried out by National Grid Ventures, a division of National Grid plc. Further consultation is scheduled to take place in 2022.

Have your say

This consultation is an important opportunity for local residents, stakeholders and others to learn about the draft proposals and give their views.

Please complete this feedback form and return to us using the contact details below. Alternatively, you can visit our project website to provide your feedback online.

Please ensure you submit your feedback by 22 October 2021.

All comments will be reviewed and considered by the team to inform development of the plans for the Humber Low Carbon Pipelines project.
