

Supplementary Transporters Participation Requirements

Distribution Networks have been requested to contact Supplementary Transporters within the DN Emergency Contact Validation exercise, on a date separate to the NEC exercise. This contact will include requests to undertake load shedding communications, this may include isolation and restoration discussions with the DN to support their Safety Case obligations.

Any communications throughout the exercise should be conducted through the relevant Distribution Network.