

Gemini Code Contingency Testing – Exercise Star

Nav Dosanjh
14th July 2010

nationalgrid
The power of action.™

Background

- ◆ Code Contingency Guidelines Document contains procedures with clear responsibilities on Shippers, National Grid and Xoserve in the event of a failure of the Gemini System.

<http://www.gasgovernance.co.uk/OtherDocs>

- ◆ Guidelines state procedures to be tested at least every 2 years.
- ◆ Xoserve is co-ordinating the Test Programme for the first planned test exercise to take place in September 2010.
- ◆ Notice of this test has been given via UK Link Committee

<http://www.gasgovernance.co.uk/uklc/130510>

- ◆ 100% Participation of all shippers is expected.

Details

- ◆ Name: Exercise Star
- ◆ Date: 8th September 2010
- ◆ Test Areas: Energy Balancing
 - GE01 – Nominations & Trade nominations (EOD Noms)
 - GE01 – Enhanced operations (DM Nominations)
 - Market Operator nominationsEntry Capacity
 - GC04 – Short Term Entry Capacity – WDDSEC
 - GC04 – Short Term Entry Capacity – DISEC
 - GC06 – Entry Capacity Trading – within day trades only
- ◆ Participants: All Shippers; Shippers Agents (if appropriate)
 - APX (Market Operator)
 - National Grid Transmission
 - Xoserve
- ◆ Tools: ANS, Telephone, Fax, Email Communications, Joint Office Website

Contact Details

- ◆ A document pack containing all details of Exercise Star will be made available on the Joint Office website prior to the Exercise.

<http://www.gasgovernance.co.uk/OtherDocs>

- ◆ All communications will be pre-fixed 'Exercise Star'.

- ◆ Questions/queries: Gasoperations.shipperliaison@uk.ngrid.com or

National Grid 01926 654180 (Nav Dosanjh)

or 01926 654043 (Nicola Forrest)

Xoserve uklink@xoserve.com