

NATIONAL GRID PLC MATTERS RESERVED FOR THE BOARD

Introduction

The UK Corporate Governance Code (the 'Code') states that every company should be headed by an effective board, which is collectively responsible for the long-term sustainable success of the Company. The Board's role is to provide entrepreneurial leadership of the company within a framework of prudent and effective controls which enables risk to be assessed and managed. The board should set the company's strategic aims, ensure that the necessary financial and human resources are in place for the company to meet its objectives and review management performance. The board should set the company's values and standards and ensure that its obligations to its shareholders and others are understood and met.

All directors must act in what they consider to be the best interests of the company consistent with their statutory duties .
